

Worksheet - Distant Control – to be used in conjunction with the Training Manual

This dog has just completed distant control. The board shows the position she finished in. What points would you deduct? Please justify your marking.

This dog has just completed distant control. The board shows the position she finished in. What points would you deduct? Please justify your marking.

This dog has just completed distant control. The board shows the position she finished in. What points would you deduct? Please justify your marking.
